Captains and Crew of the Good Ship PHS

Elected leaders of the 1982-83 good ship PHS are Jonathan Manning, Kathy Tyler, Colleen Sullivan, and Joe Freeman. Together, they and other members of the SCA led such fundraisers as Heart-to-Heart and the Holly Ball.

The years roll by, the stars shine on,
Friends that we knew, all long since gone.

But memories remain, keeping us strong.

The values of rights outweighing the wrong.

First Mates & Officers

Sail on ship, sail on.
The future lies over the horizon,
The past fades in receding waves.
Take leave of existing, extend the restless
gaze.
Sail on ship, sail on.

Sail on ship, sail on.
Turn your sight from now and look to the stars.
Celestial beings to guide your way,
to extend meaning to meaningless days.
Sail on ship, sail on.

Sail on ship, sail on.
The treasures you seek at such a great cost,
are only material and soon to be lost.
Something of worth lies waiting for each,
buried by waves, guarded by reef.
Only the brave, the courageous and true;
be they skipper, officer, first mate, or crew,
find what they search for, the meaning now
clear.
To sail back to home of sand held so dear.
Sail on ship, sail on.

A little punk, a little funk, a little elevator junk.

1982 Salvation Army Fashion Show.

If Mother Only knew

Prim and proper, sweet and good,
doing what mother said I should.
Daddy's little girl, cute and shy.
I never thought to reason why.

Now for convention, I really don't care.
I paint my face and let down my hair.
I sparkle with glitter and leave my legs
bare,
actions before I never would dare.

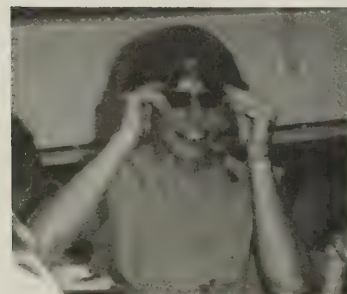

If mother only knew, if Daddy could see,
what I really happen to be.
A rebel with no cause, non-conforming for a day.

It's only a part, a piece in a play.

The day decends just as fast as it rose,
I wash the glitter and change from my clothes.

Again I'm prim and proper and good,
doing what mother said I should.

Can You See Me?

Can you see me? I'm hiding inside.
Under layers of protection, hidden to your eye.
Though I laugh on the outside, I weep in my soul,
tears of rage I cannot control.

I'm not what I seem, but I'm all that I am,
I can't blame you if you don't understand.
I express my beliefs though I say not a word.
My message is there, waiting to be heard.

You, who know me so well, just know my name.
You know my appearance, but it isn't the same.
There isn't a person who knows me as well,
as the stranger I meet and then bid farewell.

Faces

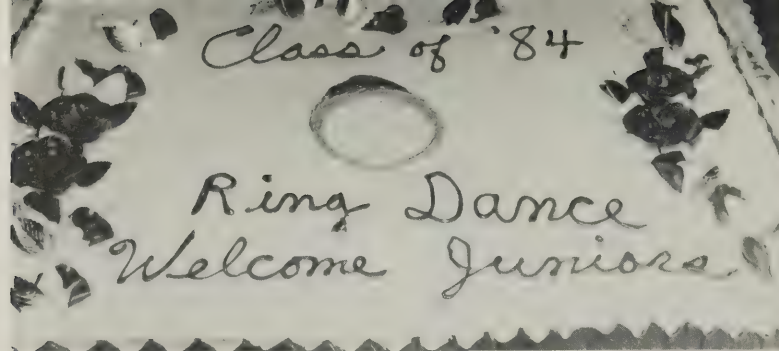

The faces change as the years go by,
At least that's what they say,
But each and every face I see
Stays with me day to day.

As years are thrown upon our backs in that endless race with time.
We find a friend, a look, a word that grows with every line.

These lines remind us lest we forget the trials we've been thru.
The lies we tell of days gone by
are etched forever true.

But now we're young, free from care they say,
our lives before us lead,
To places, people, memories and tears
To carry on our creed. Forever young.

Tidewater Challenge

Poquoson's Academic Bowl was begun only one year ago, but already, our team has beaten even the well-seasoned competition. It began with a general test given to all interested students. When the results were known, the four highest scoring students from each class were chosen to represent their grade in the school Academic Bowl. The class of 1984 triumphed in the in-school competition for the second consecutive year. The four highest scores from throughout the entire school were chosen to represent Poquoson High School in the Tidewater Challenge and they showed their spirit by beating all other schools in the competition and by winning the Finals. Poquoson High School is very proud of its representatives: Sean Jackson, Dean Myers, Greg Griswald, and captain, Paul Schillaci. Congratulations and good luck next year.

Bulls Got Pep

Mr. Day's Day

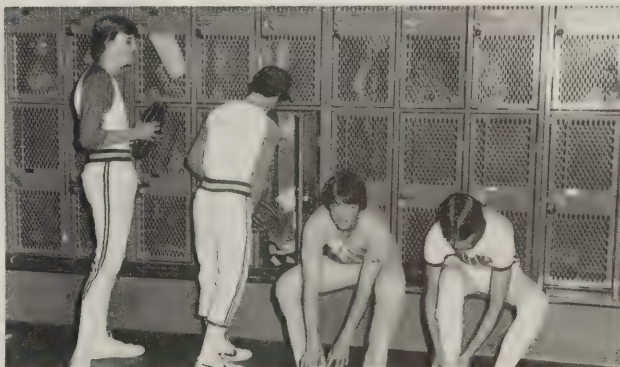

He was known as Poquoson's wrestling coach and, through his gifts of time and talent, he took Poquoson to State year after year. At a special pep rally, Mr. Day was honored and thanked by the faculty and the students who have worked with him through the years. Poquoson High School misses Mr. Day and we wish him all the best in the future.

The graduating class of 1983 will leave with many memories of their years in Poquoson. Although there are those students who have only been here a few years many have been together from the beginning. It is to the seniors who have gone through all their years of schooling in Poquoson that we would like to dedicate this Islander 1982-1983.

The Prom

This year the junior class sponsored a fantastic prom, held at the Greek Hellenic Center on Route 17. A good time was had by all and the well-known couple Miles Zasmowich and Danette Halloway captured the prom king and queen crowns. 1983 was also the first year that breakfast was served to seniors and their dates after the prom. Thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Fay, Mr. Nelson, and many parents, prom breakfast is sure to become a tradition.
